

University Rules and Regulations

Student Code of Conduct and Policies

Sample document. Specific rules, timings, fees and penalties vary by institution; adapt as needed.

1. General Conduct

- Students must treat all members of the university community with respect, courtesy and dignity.
- Students must carry their university ID card at all times on campus and show it when asked by staff or security.
- Behaviour that disrupts teaching, learning, research or administration is prohibited.
- Discrimination, harassment, bullying and intimidation on any basis (gender, race, religion, disability, etc.) are strictly forbidden.
- Students must follow lawful instructions from faculty, staff and security personnel.

2. Attendance and Punctuality

- A minimum attendance of 75% in each course is required to sit the final examination.
- Students arriving more than 15 minutes late may be marked absent at the instructor's discretion.
- Absence due to illness or emergency must be supported by documentation submitted within 7 days.
- Leave of absence for extended periods requires prior written approval from the department head.

3. Academic Integrity

- Plagiarism, including copying text, ideas or code without proper citation, is prohibited.
- Cheating in examinations, assignments or projects, including use of unauthorized materials or devices, is prohibited.
- Fabrication or falsification of data, results or documents is a serious offence.
- Impersonation, or allowing another person to impersonate you in an exam, is prohibited.
- Unauthorized use of AI tools in assessed work is considered academic misconduct unless the instructor permits it.
- Students must not help others commit academic dishonesty.

4. Examination Rules

- Students must arrive at the exam hall at least 15 minutes before the start time.
- No candidate may enter the hall more than 30 minutes after the exam begins or leave in the first 30 minutes.
- Mobile phones, smartwatches, notes and other unauthorized items must be left outside or switched off and stored away.
- Talking, sharing materials or looking at another candidate's paper is forbidden.
- Students must follow the invigilator's instructions and write only on the answer booklets provided.
- Any suspected misconduct will be reported and may lead to disqualification from the paper or course.

5. Assessment and Grading

- Assignments must be submitted by the stated deadline; late submissions may incur grade penalties.

- Students may request a re-evaluation of results within 10 working days of publication, subject to a fee.
- A minimum overall GPA (typically 2.0) is required to remain in good academic standing.
- Students on academic probation must meet the conditions set by the academic committee.

6. Dress Code and Personal Appearance

- Students should dress modestly and appropriately for an academic environment.
- Laboratories, workshops and clinical areas may require protective clothing, closed shoes and ID badges.
- Clothing with offensive slogans or imagery is not permitted.

7. Campus Facilities and Property

- Students must take care of university property; damage, theft or misuse will be charged and may be penalized.
- Library: books must be returned on time; fines apply for overdue items; silence must be maintained in reading areas.
- Computer labs and the university network may be used for academic purposes only. Illegal downloads, hacking and accessing inappropriate content are forbidden.
- Eating and drinking are not allowed in classrooms, labs and the library unless in designated areas.
- Smoking, vaping, alcohol and illegal drugs are prohibited on campus.
- Vehicles must be parked only in designated areas and speed limits observed.

8. Health, Safety and Security

- Weapons, explosives and hazardous materials are strictly prohibited on campus.
- Students must follow all laboratory safety procedures and report accidents or hazards immediately.
- Fire exits, alarms and safety equipment must never be blocked, tampered with or misused.
- Visitors must register at the gate and remain the responsibility of the host student.
- Students must comply with emergency drills and evacuation procedures.

9. Hostel and Residence Rules (if applicable)

- Residents must observe curfew timings and sign in and out as required.
- Overnight guests are not allowed without written permission from the warden.
- Cooking appliances, loud music and disturbances after quiet hours are prohibited.
- Rooms are subject to inspection for safety and cleanliness with prior notice.
- Residents are responsible for the condition of their room and furnishings.

10. Fees and Financial Obligations

- Tuition and other fees must be paid by the announced due dates.

- Late payment may lead to fines, suspension of services or withholding of results.
- Fee refunds follow the university's published refund policy and deadlines.
- Scholarship holders must maintain the required GPA and conduct standards to retain funding.

11. Technology and Social Media

- Use of university IT resources must comply with the acceptable use policy.
- Sharing passwords or accessing another person's account is prohibited.
- Recording lectures or sharing course materials without permission is not allowed.
- Posting defamatory, threatening or confidential content about the university or its members online is prohibited.

12. Student Activities and Organizations

- Clubs and societies must be officially registered and have a faculty advisor.
- Events and gatherings on campus require prior approval from student affairs.
- Political activities, protests and fundraising must follow university guidelines and applicable law.
- Ragging or hazing of any kind is strictly prohibited and punishable by suspension or expulsion.

13. Disciplinary Procedures and Penalties

- Alleged violations are investigated by a disciplinary committee; students have the right to be heard.
- Penalties may include a verbal or written warning, fine, community service, grade reduction, suspension, expulsion or cancellation of degree.
- Serious criminal offences may be referred to law enforcement.
- Students may appeal a disciplinary decision in writing within 14 days to the appeals committee.

14. Grievances and Support

- Students may raise complaints through the student affairs office, ombudsperson or grievance committee.
- Counselling, health and disability support services are available to all students.
- Complaints of harassment or abuse are handled confidentially and without retaliation.

Acknowledgement: By enrolling, students agree to abide by these rules and accept that violations may result in disciplinary action.